DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I claims 1-3 and 5 in the reply filed on June 11, 2009 is acknowledged.
2. Claims 4, 6, and 7 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim.

Priority

3. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1-3 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fleming (US 4,301,776).

Fleming discloses a motion converting mechanism comprising a reciprocating member (12) and a rotating member (21); said reciprocating member (12) comprising at least two roller cam followers (25) in substantially constant distance from each other; said rotating member (21) comprising a cam (23); for each rotation of the cam (23) only one reciprocation of the reciprocating member (12) takes place; characterized in that: the centers of the roller cam followers follow curves (see Fig 1).

Fleming does not disclose the formula:  $E(f+f_1) = \sqrt{(a+Y(f))^2 + d^2}$ , with  $f_1 = \arctan((a+Y(f))/d)$ , where  $f$  is the rotation angle of the cam,  $d$  is half the distance between the axes of reciprocation of the centers of the roller cam followers and  $a$  is a constant; while  $Y(f) + Y(f+\pi) = \text{constant}$  for any  $f$ .

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to discover the optimum value of eccentricity, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
